Dr Philip Armitage has extensive teaching experience and a Ph.D in Historical Archaeology, so your children are in the care of a Professional team. His credentials include working for the Natural History Museum in London where he was the Environmental Research Officer for the Department of Urban Archaeology and was in charge of a team of environmental archaeologists. In addition to Dr Armitage's work in the Museum and his own Consultancy Services at Faunal Analysis, he also directs the Archaeological Field Team at Berry Head and publishes papers on his specialist subjects.

If you would like further information on any of these great Programmes please contact Louise Cresswell on 01803 856 267 or email: mail@brixhamheritage.org.uk.
